Gaffey announced that a meeting of Selmi, Mayor John Larson of Bayshore City and mayors of other cities in the county will be held Monday afternoon at the San Mateo City Hall to prepare detailed plans for the county wide celebration to raise

DALY CITY BAND TO GIVE SECOND FREE CONCERT

Interesting Program To Which All Citizens Of Our Municipality Are Invited

A full turnout was made by the band for the East-West football game at Kezar Stadium on New Year Day. The Daly City Band was given the honor of one of the first bands on the 50 yard line during the massed pageant.

No doubt many of our citizens who attended the game experienced a real thrill when our band entered the tunnel playing the popular "Lights Out," California University's official march. This number was played without a stop while the band circled the field and entered their space in the stadium at the west end.

Bandmaster George Brenner announces the following program for the second popular concert to be given at the City Hall Auditorium, February 3 at 8 p. m.:

(1) March, "Sons of Australia," Lithgow.
(2) Overture, "Light Cavalry," Suppe.
(3) "Twilight Serenade," King.
(4) March, "Them Basses," Huffine.
(5) "Pale Moon," (an Indian Love Song), Logan.
(6) Selection, "The Dollar Princess," Leo Fall.
(7) March, "Washington Star," (composed and played officially by the U. S. Marine Band of Washington), William Stannard.

INTERMISSION

(8) March, "Gateway to the Peninsula," (Daly City's Official March), George Brenner.
(9) Selection, "Chimes of Normandy," Planquette.
(10) "In A moonlight Garden," King.
(11) Waltz, "Old Timers," (introducing many old time favorite ballads), Lake.
(12) Hawaiian Patrol, "Kilaueha," Stewart.
(13) "Dance of the Hours," (from the famous opera "La Gioconda"), Ponchelli.
(14) March, "King Cotton," John Philip Sousa.
(Finale) "The Star Spangled Banner."

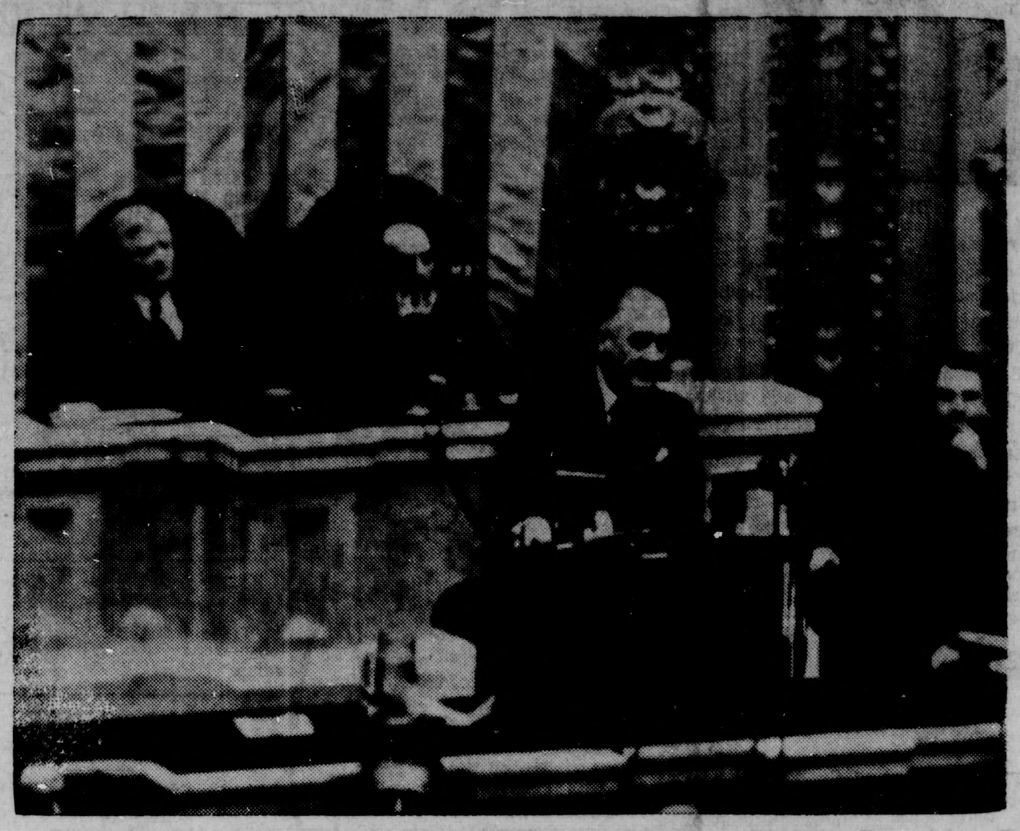
This is a free concert tendered to our citizens and it is hoped that a large number will attend and show their appreciation and co-operation. There are not many cities of our size in the state which can boast of a band of the high standard that our Daly City Band maintains. Keep this date before you.

JUDGE DIDN'T BELIEVE

Although Melvin King, 24, of El Cajon, insisted that those two prize Rhode Island red roosters followed him out of sheer affection, he was convicted of theft.

Justice William Collard of El Cajon Township was skeptical.

Roosevelt Calls For Unity In Address To Congress



Pictured as he recently addressed the combined houses of Congress, President Franklin D. Roosevelt urged business and labor to co-operate with the government and stressed hope that the United States will follow a policy of peace. The President also told Congress that "misuse of the powers of capital" must be ended "or the capitalistic system will destroy itself through its own abuses." Concerning the wage hour plan, the chief executive said: "We are seeking, of course, only legislation to end starvation wages and intolerable hours; more desirable wages are and should continue to be the product of collective bargaining."

COLMA PROJECT HAS FIRST STEP FOR APPROVAL

The Colma Creek flood control project, estimated to cost $55,000, has been approved by the State Planning Commission in Los Angeles, it was learned Monday of this week.

Plans have been forwarded by the commission to the National Resources Committee in Washington, D. C., with a "B" recommendation. The government agency must yet approve the project, however.

County Planning Adviser Ronald Campbell said that the purpose of the flood control work will be to protect farm lands in the Colma Creek basin west of Daly City. The county has already spent some $20,000 in that area.

Check dams are to be constructed and an extensive program of tree planting is envisioned as part of the crop benefit work.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE RESIGNS

Announcement was made in Washington, D. C., Wednesday, that Justice George Sutherland had sent a letter to the White House apprising President Roosevelt that he would retire from the United State Supreme Court bench on January 18.

The veteran, conservative jurist, who will be 76 in March, told reporters ill health compelled him to make this decision.

The President, by naming liberal Justice to fill the vacancy, can give his Administration an ironclad liberal majority on the high court. The departure of Sutherland will leave only two "dyed-in-the-wool" conservatives on the court—Justices James Clark McReynolds and Pierce Butler. The New Deal may even win a 7 to 2 majority, since Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes and Justice Owen D. Roberts frequently have supported Administration policies.

Accident Cause Of First Jury Trial

The first jury trial of 1938 in San Francisco, Monday morning of this week, had as the plaintiff 9 year old Esther Morgan.

The child, through her father, is suing for $20,740 damages for injuries said to have been received when she was struck to the pavement by a car driven by Emalyn Holland of San Francisco .The child sustained a fractured skull at the time of the accident.

CAR COLLISION INJURES TWO

A collision between cars driven by William M. Mervish, 3524 Twentieth street, San Francisco, and James D. Morrison, 61 Chula Lane, also of San Francisco, which occurred early New Year morning on San Pedro road and the Alemany boulevard, resulted in a broken arm for Mrs. Josephine Phillips, Merced apartments at Twenty-second and Valencia street, San Francisco. Frank Larrita, who, with Miss Phillips, was a passenger in the Mervish car, received slight injuries.

County And State In Population Increase

Population of San Mateo County, as of January 1, 1938, is estimated to be 91,000. This is an estimated increase of 13,595 persons, as compared with the 1930 census figure of 77,405 persons.

Total population of California is estimated as 6,576,000 as of January 1. The 1930 census showed the population of the state to be 5,677,251 persons.

LEGISLATURE TO RATIFY COUNTY AMENDMENTS

Assurance that charter amendments for San Mateo County would be offered to the state legislature for ratification if a special session is called by Governor Merriam came from Sacramento in a press despatch this week.

It was announced that approval of charter amendments of San Francisco, San Mateo County and Redding "likely would be included among business to be handled in the session."

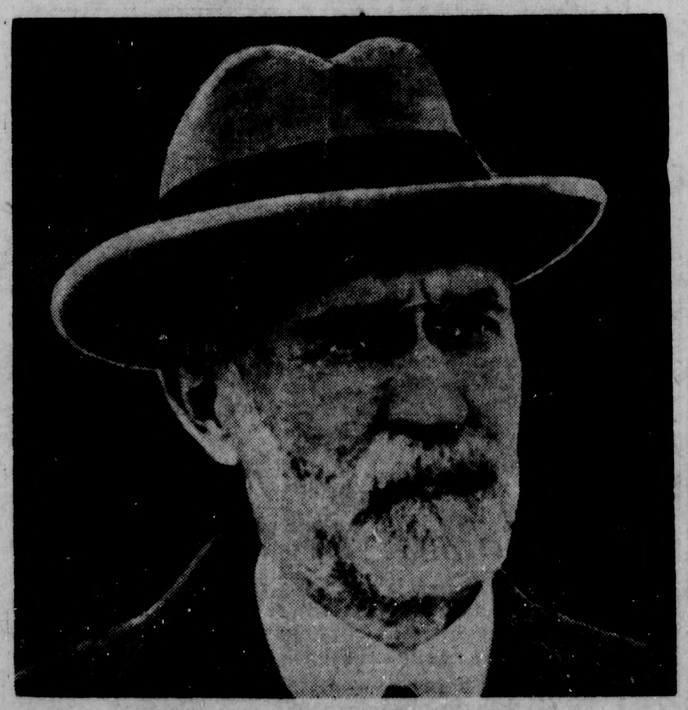
Governor Merriam stated, the despatch said, that legislative districts which have vacancies can fill them through special representation in the forthcoming session, if "a reasonable number" of citizens evidence a desire for the special vote.

BINGO BUM STUNT

Monday evening of this week firemen rescued at Pawtucket, R. I., nearly 200 bingo players, trapped by flames in a top floor recreation hall of the two-story American-British building there.

Twenty-nine players and firemen were injured, nine seriously.

SUTHERLAND QUITS HIGH COURT



Associate Justice George Sutherland of the United States Supreme Court announced to President Roosevelt recently his intention to retire from the high tribunal January 18. Given by his friends as chief reason for resigning was his advanced age. He will be 76 next March. A former U. S. senator from Utah, Sutherland was appointed by President Harding in 1922. His resignation opens the way for the appointment of a second Roosevelt man.

READ AND HEED ROADSIDE SIGNS

Many a driver has fallen into trouble because he failed to realize the necessity of reading and heeding roadside traffic signs. If a sign says STOP, you are not obeying the law if you just slow down. If a sign says CAUTION, you are deceiving only yourself if you ignore it. Traffic safety signs were not put up to fool people. They tell the gospel truth at all times. They advise motorists about the safe way to drive on a street or highway. They were placed there for our own good. OBSERVE ALL TRAFFIC SIGNS, The National Safety Council advises.—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

COURT ORDER IN PURCHASING AGENT BATTLE

The row over the county purchasing agent job has finally reached the "circus" stage.

Monday afternoon, of this week, attorneys for Stanley Kelly, who was dismissed by ordinance adopted by the supervisors from the position of purchasing agent, went to court with the controversy.

They filed a petition for an alternative writ of mandate to force Controller E. M. Stack to pay Kelly for a full month's services in December, or show cause why he should not.

Fifteen minutes later Judge Warren V. Tyron issued an order making the writ returnable January 10 at 10 a.m., in department 2, Ordinarily presided over by Superior

TIME FOR AUTO REGISTRATIONS IS FEBRUARY 4

Previous Training Of Counter Clerks Facilitates Speed In Transacting Business

The rush of renewal of motor vehicle registration started Monday morning, January 3, but soon developed into a routine procedure. There were many favorable comments by motorists, who found to their satisfaction that the speed with which licenses were being issued had greatly improved over past years.

The branch manager of the San Francisco office attributes this improvement to the preliminary training of the counter rate and cashier clerks. These counter clerks were given several days schooling and actual training prior to the renewal period.

As a definite result on this preliminary training, the length of time required for the issuing of license plates has been materially reduced and the 1938 registration cards will start going into the mails for their owners on the second day of renewal.

Howard E. Deems, registrar, has warned all motorists that the renewal of registration period positively will end February 4 and urges prompt action on the part of those persons who will apply for their 1938 license plates.

Do not fail to bring in the fee notification postcard, the white registration card and the fees for the new registration, either as post office or express money orders, or cashier or certified checks, or in cash.

CITY RECREATION PROJECT MAKES GOOD HEADWAY

New Activities Being Added Each Week By Those In Charge Of Program

With the completion of the remodeling, the Daly City Recreation Project will be installed in its office and headquarters on Wellington street, next door to the Daly City Hall.

The Vista Grande Park is now the scene of considerable activity, the council, through Mayor Paul Selmi, having arranged for grading and leveling of the lower field, which will be devoted to football, soccer, baseball and softball.

Roller skate hockey teams are being formed and soccer teams are being organized under the direction of Adolf Fischer, who has charge of these activities.

Under the Federal Program of Recreational Projects the city, which becomes cosponsor with the state of California for the Daly City WPA Project, has appointed A. J. Bodien as representative for the city to act with the director of the local project in setting up the program and he is enthusiastic in his cooperation.

Within the next two weeks recreational activities, including handicraft, games and sports for boys, girls and adults will be instituted.

WINDSOR MAY RESIDE HERE

When the Duke of Windsor brings his American born Duchess back to her native land, he will bring her to California.

Unless long and carefully guarded negotiations suddenly collapse, he will establish his American home in San Mateo County.

ERRATIC PLAY FOR ALCAZAR MAKES FOR FUN

Ambition To Be Artist Leads To Incarceration Of Seeker As Being Unbalanced

All mental cases are not incarcerated in sanitaria!

At least the Federal Theater Project's new stage production "Nude With Pineapple," opening at the Alcazar Theater, Wednesday evening of next week, makes this clear when the leading character in the play is compelled to do a stretch in an asylum to realize his life's ambition, that of an artist.

The young man in question has a yearning to be a surrealist, which to many is a definite form of mental haziness to say the least. It is, however, a definite form of craziness to his wife and father in law and being people of action they promptly cause him to be put away. From this point on things happen fast and hilariously.

"Nude With Pineapple" is by Fulton Oursler, editor in chief of Liberty Magazine. It is a different type of play from any ever before introduced to a San Francisco stage. It took New York audiences by storm. It was this play that gave coinage to the well known figures of theatrical parlance, "Rolling 'em in the aisles" and "Wow." To merely say that "Nude With Pineapple" is funny is a gross understatement, according to the New York reviewers.

Ralph Freud, who directed "Cricket On The Hearth," is the director and again is seen in one of the roles. The cast was personally selected by Mr. Freud and consists of Ruth Anderson, Phil Stearns, J. Raymond Northcutt, Frank Lyons, Kay Pickering, Rupert Drumm, James Stott, Edgar Regan, Daniel Pennell, Michele Eliot and Mr. Freud.

AND ON IT GOES

Bessie had a new dime to invest in an ice cream soda.

Minister (who was calling): "Why don't you give your dime to missions?"

Bessie: "I thought about that, but I think I'll buy the ice cream soda and let the druggist give it to missions."—Toronto Globe and Mail.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO FINN

Death, Wednesday evening of this week, suddenly claimed Thomas F. Finn, former San Francisco Sheriff and political figure in the city since the turn of the century.

Stricken by a heart attack shortly before midnight in the midst of a family gathering at his home at 364 Parnassus avenue, he toppled from a sofa and apparently died immediately.

With Mr. Finn when he died were his wife and his two brothers, Joseph and William Finn.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Gantner-Felder-Kenny.

Mr. Finn, a widower since 1932, when his first wife died, last June married Elizabeth McInnes in Reno.

Although Mr. Finn had been under a physician's care for some time, death struck without warning. He had spent the day in his insurance office.

Born in San Francisco, Mr. Finn was reared in the neighborhool of Fifth and Natoma streets.

He was the eldest of fourteen children.

Each mayor will be asked to appoint a sub committee to represent his community.

"The success of last year's ball proved the wisdom of holding one big celebration in the county instead of several as was done in previous years," Gaffey said.

"This plan eliminates needless duplication of efforts and results in a larger amount of money being raised to carry on the war against infantile paralysis. John W. Marchbank of Daly City again has generously donated the use of the Tanforan clubhouse for the celebration, and once again I am asking citizens of the county to display the same splendid co-operation as they have in the past to make the 1938 President's Birthday Ball an outstanding success."

ESSENTIALS FOR HIGHWAY SAFETY

At its recent annual congress, the National Safety Council reaffirmed its declaration of war on accidents, and asked for:

(1) More and better uniform traffic laws, especially in the matter of standard signs and signals and the licensing requirements for drivers.

(2) Stricter, fairer and more intelligent enforcement.

(3) Efficient safety organizations in every state, county and community.

(4) More and better traffic enginering, resulting in safer highways.

(5) Periodical inspection of all motor vehicles by properly equipped stations operated or closely supervised by state or city.

(6) Intelligent safety instruction in all schools.

(7) More research into the physical causes and preventatives of accidents.

Here is the way to make our streets and highways—which are today more dangerous than a battlefield—safe. There is no royal road to safety, but neither is there any mystery about it. Good drivers, operating good cars, under proper regulations, on well designed arteries, are not likely to cause death, injury or property damage. The reckless, incompetent or drunken motorist; the mechanically defective automobile; the highway which is structurally years behind the times—these are the triumvirate that are collectively responsible for the annual traffic massacre of 30,000 Americans. And of the three, the first is infinitely the greatest menace.

The National Safety Council, out of its wealth of experience, has proposed a long range program that should be put into effect without delay, and should receive the enthusiastic co-operation not only of state and city governments, but of the entire motoring population as well.

ANOTHER CONQUEST!

California celebrates another conquest—shoving back the frontiers of the desolate, once dreaded wastes of Death Valley.

Nothing in California's recent history has shown more strikingly the size and vastness of this state—not until today has a modern road penetrated into that fantastic country! This occurred 88 years after the first gold seeking emigrant party wandered across the blazing salt flats of that sunken valley to a tragic fate!

Today's route—first unit of the Lone Pine-Death Valley highway—skirts lava rims, serpentines around basalt cliffs, and dodges cinder cones, following the old desert trail that was bedded down by prospectors' burros, freight teams, emigrant trains and wild horses.

The prowess of California's engineers is rapidly shearing the valley of the horrors it held for the hapless Jayhawker party whose members lost their way and died of thirst in a baking inferno in 1849.

And nothing, it may be added, gives better proof that California is a land of amazing contrasts than that less than 80 miles from Death Valley, the lowest spot on the American continent, towers majestic Mount Whitney, the highest pont in the United States.

The conquest of this eerie desert wilderness, so rich in prospectors lore and adventurous chronicles, makes Death Valley no longer something to read about. Now we see it for ourselves!

NOT KIDNAPED— "JUST MARRIED"

Trudie Bennett

Trudie Bennett, 17, daughter of Harry Bennett, personnel director of the Ford Motor Company, who recently created the latest scare when she dropped from sight. Bennett, often called the "stormy petrel of the labor situation" in Detroit, feared his daughter had been kidnaped since his family's safety had been threatened over the telephone. Fears soon came to an end when it was discovered Miss Bennett had eloped with Russell Hughes, 21, from Detroit to Auburn, Ind.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN
JOHN J. McGRATH

Farmers to Prosper—In 1938 there will be more than a billion dollars headed in the direction of farmers. The billion dollars will be in form of subsidies, and in addition, there will be money spent for price fixing loans and for WPA funds to build farm to market roads to aid the farmer. Then there is the regular expenditure from the Department of Agriculture, and the amount spent yearly by the Surplus Commodities Corporation to buy farm products for distribution to unemployed.

* * *

War Referendum Measure—A measure opposed by the President, and one seeking to amend the Constitution so war could be declared only by a national referendum except in case of invasion, will be one of the first measures taken up at the new session. It is likely to bring about a real fight.

Land With Topsoil Loses Less and Produces More—At one of the soil erosion experiment stations of the Soil Conservation Service, two plots, equal in size and similar in soil, slope, and other characteristics, were laid out. All the topsoil was removed from one plot and both were planted. Measurements of yields and the amount of soil and water lost from each plot were made over a period of three years. Results compiled by the Service show that erosion removed 19 more tons of soil per acre each year from the subsoil plot than from the plot with the original surface soil, and that 5 per cent more water ran off the subsoil plot. Over the 3 year period the yield from the subsoil plot was only one-fifth that of the other plot. During the experiment an average of 89 tons of soil per acre was lost each year from the plot with original surface soil in place. The subsoil plot lost 108 tons of soil per acre. More than 7 inches of soil would be removed in less than 20 years at this rate of erosion.

Housing—More than 5,850 mortgage lending institutions are actively engaged in making home mortgage loans under the Federal Housing Administration's Insured Mortgage System. This represents an increase of approximately 900 institutions over the number active on the same date last year. State and national banks and trust companies maintain their leadership in Federal Housing Administration activities, accounting for 4,136 of the total number of active institutions. This group of mortgagees has handled a total of 127,100 mortgages aggregating $506,189,400 or 59 per cent of the total volume of Federal Housing Administration insured mortgage loans.

* * *

Rearmament—The United States may venture into a field of rearmament. Her navy may be made the second largest, and the army completely modernized. Many are in favor of such a program of spending for the government, as it would not only take effect soon after approval, but would put thousands of people back to work, help industries, and above all would place this country on a safer basis in regard to world conflicts by helping her assume world leadership.

* * *

Veterans Naturalization—Recently Congress liberalized laws respecting naturalization of alien veterans of the World War. Before the laws were changed recently, aliens had to prove good behavior during the entire period of their residence in the United States. The law, as amended last August, holds that they only need to prove good behavior for five years preceding the application for naturalization. Application should be made by the veterans to the nearest federal or state court having naturalization jurisdiction. Each applicant must prove lawful entry, lawful residence, honorable discharge, and qualifications under the law, which is explained in the offices of the federal or state court.

* * *

Tenancy Act Aids Farmer—Those farm tenants, laborers, or sharecroppers who can show that most of their income comes from farming operations, are eligible to consideration for loans from the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenancy Act. Up until 1939 the law authorizes an expenditure of $35,000,000 for federal loans to these farmers, and $50,000,000 annually thereafter for financing these loans. An interested applicant must address the Farm Security Administration, 1025 Vermont avenue, Washington, D. C., giving all facts about his farm status and asking for blanks and other information. This application will be sent then to a committee of disinterested persons in the applicant's county who will examine the application and appraise the desired farm. Preference will be given to those who are married, who have dependent families and who are able to make some initial down payment or who have livestock and farm implements. Only American citizens are considered for these loans.

Ship Bids—Representing the largest individual peace time order for merchant cargo tonnage ever placed in this country, bids for the immediate construction of 12 fast, single screw steel cargo vessels for operation in foreign commerce, were asked by the United States Maritime Commission. The bids are returnable on Tuesday, February 1. Construction of the vessels will initiate an orderly replacement program by the commission to rehabilitate the country's aging merchant fleet of World War origin which will be virtually obsolete within the next five years. Cargo ships are urgently needed as the highest degree of obsolescence prevails among vessels of this type. Not a single sea going ship of the general cargo type, has been built for foreign trade in an American shipyard in the last 15 years. The new vessels will have a speed of 15½ knots which will make them 50 per cent faster than the majority of American merchant vessels of this type.

NOTES ON OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

FINAL THREE WEEKS NOW IN SESSION

Students and teachers in the six schools of the Jefferson School District have returned to school this week after the holiday vacation. They are enthusiastic and eager to complete the final three weeks of the present fall term.

The spring term will begin January 24. Superintendent Crane reports that undoubtedly there will be many new students entering the schools throughout the district.

SOCIAL SCIENCE IN CLASS PAPER

As a culminating activity in Social Science, the high fifth and low sixth grade of the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School, under the guidance of Miss Varni, are going to publish a short class paper consisting of the work accomplished throughout the term.

The title of the paper as voted by the group is "The Sitting Desk." Frances Mjehovich was elected student editor by her class. The students within the class will serve as reporters.

The integration of the school subjects, as well as originality in arrangement of subject matter, will be the desired outcomes of this class paper, which will be entirely organized and published by members of the class.

FIFTH GRADE NOW PLANS STAMP CLUB

The fifth grade has organized a stamp club. Its members have joined the Examiner Stampeders Club. Members of this stamp club "swap books" by mail.

Meetings are held twice a month. At each meeting, various members are appointed to report on the story of some interesting stamp. Miss Sanbraiilo considers this an excellent way to teach her children to apply their knowledge of geography and history. It gives them, incidentally, a familiarity with club procedure.

FIRST GRADES STUDY HOMES AND STORES

The low and high first grades have been studying homes and stores in their community. With their teacher, Mrs. Hosmer, the children recently made a tour of the stores on San Pedro avenue. They are being taught to observe and express their experiences in good simple language.

The beautiful arrangement of fruits and vegetables, with prices plainly marked, was a favorite subject for discussion. Next, in popular appeal, was the new post office with its improved boxes and slides for letters.

This tour was a conclusion to a well developed unit on homes and stores in our community.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, January 9, on the subject "Sacrament."

The Golden Text will be: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" (I Cor. 10: 16). Bible selections will include the following passage from Matthew 5: 6: "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which read as follows: "What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds . . . Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void" (pp. 4, 2).

TROOP NO. 141

Meets Thursdays 7 to 9 p. m. at Nazarene Church, Vista and Santa Barbara

(Scout Angelo Ditty, Troop Rep.)

Scouts Enjoy Trip On Xmas Vacation

On Wednesday morning, December 29, we left troop headquarters for a trip of adventure—a winter camp. John Mosman, troop counselor, packed just as many of us into his V-8 as he could and Mr. Straughan, committeeman, took two boys and our supplies in good old Soy Bean, his flivver. The "pneumonia" seat was piled sky high with bedding and food. Even Soloman, our rooster, had a berth on the running board.

The fun special arrived in camp about 11 o'clock and Soy Bean was pushed up the last lap of the journey, a very steep grade, just in time to provide the wherewith for a hot lunch of solamagoozelem and what went with it for a lot of hungry boys.

An inspection tour of the camp was made by the early arrivals and many discoveries were made. Among these was the craft shop with its display of numerous handicraft articles. The first afternoon was spent in craft work, with Mr. Dickenson, camp superintendent, instructing. Several of the boys completed articles and brought them back as souvenirs of the trip. A few outdoor games and a steaming supper ended the day and all were glad to turn in early and listen to stories until overtaken by sleep.

Thursday found us up early and we did jusetice to a breakfast of Boy Joy mush, hot cakes, cocoa and other tempting concoctions of our ambitious cook.

Most of the forenoon was spent in outdoor games. At 11 o'clock we went swimming in the camp pool. And what a swim it was! Something had evidently gone wrong with the water heater, so we just took it "as wuz." At only 6 degrees above freezing, a dip or two cooled off the spirits of our most ardent swimmers. Movies were made of the incident and there was plenty of action.

At noon Scout Richard King cooked camp stew and corn bread for his first class scout test. Both things were voted as O. K. by all present. Elden Prziborowski made a delicious combination salad and we only hope he doesn't forget the combination, so he can make another some time. Mr. Straughan made a dessert of Boy Joy pudding, which went down plenty easy.

The afternoon program, pretty much the same as the day before, was packed with activities. After supper we went into the large recreation hall and conducted our regular troop meeting. All were present except two scouts who were kept at home on account of illness. A long-to-be-remembered part of it was a gathering around the huge fireplace for songs and stories and a bit of troop business. The case of Soloman the rooster, was brought up and his death sentence was commuted to "life" as troop mascot, instead of being served with dumplings as was first planned. That bird will never know what a close shave he had! He is one rooster that really has something to crow about. A Scout circle with appropriate closing execises completed the evening and we retired for a night of well earned rest.

On Thursday morning, Soloman, the rooster, had not been told of his pardon and he just let us sleep on. Anyhow we got up in time to eat lunch and pack up for the return trip home. Mrs. Greer, grandmother of Scout Irving Hughes, and Rev. N. M. Lewis came with their cars shortly after noon for us. They were shown around camp and then we embarked on the homeward journey, arriving in midafternoon.

Those making the trip were Scouts Glenn Goode, Lawrence Christiansen, Allen Rigler, Edward McIntosh, Richard King, Irving Hughes, Ernest Anderson, Donald Laston, Elden Przibarowski and Lion Cubs John Mosman and Kenneth Claussen. Mr. Straughan was in charge of the group.

CHRISTMAS PLAY BY JEFF HIGH VERY PLEASING

All Accoustics Constructed By Students Under Direction Of Faculty Members

Parents of students attending Jefferson Union High School, as well as the students themselves, are still commenting on the Christmas program presented by the High School Musical Department and Dramatic Class.

"Why The Chimes Rang," dramatized by Elizabeth A. McFadden from the story by Raymond M. Alden, was one of the finest Christmas plays that the high school has produced. The stage of the auditorium was transformed into a cathedral like setting with the beautiful art glass window effect which was made possible by the supervision of Miss Effie Potter, art instructor. The stage designs were also worked out under her supervision by Evan Gillespie and Wallace Schaerr, and the woodwork class, under Mr. T. Bentley's direction, built the stage properties.

Miss Beaul Gibbons created the costumes, which were made by the following girls: Patricia Schoening, Evelyn Clanton, Frances Spark, Irene Cain, Jacqueline Mast and Janice Burke. The stage crew, which was directed by Mr. Durant W. Moseley, consisted of: Alan Ingersoll, Jack Cosbie, Carl Pistochini and Sam Watso.

Mr. William E. Hoppe, dramatics and English instructor, had Miriam Marin assist as student director, and both have been highly praised by those who were fortunate enough to see the production.

Musical numbers by the orchestra and chorus, directed by Oscar J. Busch, provided a suitable atmosphere for the play. Members of the cast of "Why Chimes Rang," entered into their parts exceptionally well, and created a sense of reality frequently not obtained by professional groups.

Books Make People Understandable

To children of two hemispheres the books of Lucy Fitch Perkins have made the word "foreigner" mean "someone who can be understood" rather than a person who is hopelessly "different" and strange.

When Mrs. Perkins passed on in Pasadena, Calif., she was at work on her twenty-fifth volume of "Twins" books—tales to which many American men and women now look back as having stirred them to their first lively interest in children of other lands.

The literature of two generations of American children has been richer because of the "Twins" books. They were among the earliest tales for children in this country to shake off the provincial outlook and introduce their readers to the color and fascination of foreign lands and customs. They have also been published in England.

"The Irish Twins," "The Eskimo Twins," "The Scotch Twins," "The Chinese Twins" are some of the representative titles which have had such wide circulation that in 1935 Mrs. Perkins was publicly presented with a specially bound copy of one of her books—the 2,000,000th volume by her to come off the presses.

After her graduation from the Museum of Fine Arts School, Boston in 1886, Mrs. Perkins taught in the school of Fine Arts, Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, New York, later going to live in Chicago.

In addition to her literary work, she did many mural paintings for home and school. Her Evanston and California residences were the center for meeting of young and old, especially those interested in civic activities and in promoting international understanding.

Bank Of America Reaches All Time High Mark In 1937

All time high marks in deposits, total resources and capital funds of Bank of America on December 31, 1937, have placed the institution on a higher footing even than in 1929.

A year end statement of condition just released shows that on December 31, 1937, captital funds stood at a total of $109,104,000, highest mark in the 33 year history of the bank and an increase from $105,024,000 at the beginning of the year. This, it is stated, means that all capital funds which were called upon for absorption of depression losses have been reinstated, without the issuance of any new stock.

On December 31, Bank of America deposits reached the historic mark of $1,357,000,000, an increase of $58,402,000 over the record of 1936. Earnings totalled $19,203,000, equal to $4.80 a share, and dividends paid out amounted to $8,800,000, ten per cent higher than the year before. There also was a special Christmas distribution of $400,000 to employes.

$4,080,000 was added to surplus and undivided profits after provision of $3,277,000 reserves for depreciation on banking premises, amortization of bond premiums, etc., and $2,646,000 reserves set apart to reduce carrying value of assets.

Total resources of the bank maintained an upward trend and now stand at the new high of $1,493,373,000, a gain of 4.40 per cent for the year. Loans made by the bank also increased $98,592,000 over the December 31, 1936, total.

During 1937 the number of Bank of America branches in California rose to 491, serving 306 communities. Sixteen new branches were added, extending the services of the bank to twelve new communities and augmenting facilities in metropolitan centers.

Postage Stamps Have Birthdays

The year 1940 will mark the 100th anniversary of the issuance of the first postage stamp. The 1-penny black was issued by Great Britain in 1840 and bore a profile portrait of the young Queen Victoria. Sir Rowland Hill was the originator and organizer of the penny post system and it was through his efforts that the penny stamp was issued.

British collectors are already planning an international celebration of the centenary of the postage stamp.

"Tete-Beche" is a French term used to designate stamps which have been printed upside-down in relation to each other. Recent stamps of Switzerland show this effect and this peculiarity is due to one of the cliches in a stamp plate being inserted the wrong way.

"Se-Tenant" (French for "jointed together") is a term applied to stamps of different values being joined together. Switzerland also furnished examples of this. Another example is the 5 cent red error of the United States issued in a sheet of the regular 2 cent.

TRANSPORT SHOWS "OLD GLORY" FOR IDENTIFICATION

FIND NEW USES FOR RUBBER AND RAW PRODUCTS

Many Species Of Animals Have Been Constructed From This Springy Material

Akron rubber is being put in many new and interesting uses in the making of moving pictures.

Its use in the filming of pictures is not, directors point out, for the purpose of deceiving the public, but to insure safety in mob and riot scenes.

One concern in Los Angeles keeps in stock rifles, pistols, fish of various kinds, hand-grenades, roast chickens, squabs, ducks, knives and forks and spoons—all made of rubber.

A recent picture had scenes portraying alligators. The problem was solved by taking a live alligator in dormant state from a nearby alligator farm to the studio. A plaster cast was made over the alligator's entire front portions. This cast was divided into 10 sections. From these sections aluminum molds were made with a core in the center. This permitted molding of rubber alligators.

The exteriors of 12 alligators so made were colored by artists and mounted on small trucks that operated beneath the water, giving the rubber alligators a life-like action.

Thirty boa constrictors of rubber were made with a live boa taken from a zoo and laid on the grass to be used as a pattern. The rubber mold for the snakes was made of sheet rubber wrapped with tape. Coloring was done by hand and the snake was mounted on a small truck.

In "The Country Doctor," in which the Dionne quintuplets were featured, the prop lits called for rubber babies. Specifications were obtained from Dr. Allan Dafoe, duplicates were made in clay, and approved by the doctor. From the clay, plaster casts were made, then aluminum molds, and the babies were turned out in proper size in sponge rubber.

In making "Mutiny on the Bounty," it was found that wooden decks were too noisy, so all deck surfaces were covered with sponge rubber.

The use of latex for props is said to be increasing. Effects that formerly were obtained with papier mache, glue and other materials are obtained from latex. In "Alice in Wonderland" and "Babes in Toyland" latex was used to a large extent. First, an impression of an actor's face is obtained, and into the mold latex is sprayed, making a thin mask identical with the actor's face.

AN ANTHEM

"Michael," said one Irishman to another, "what is an anthem?"

"Well, I'll tell ye, Barney. If I said to you, 'Barney, please get me the vinegar', that wouldn't be an anthem. But if I said, 'Barney, Bar, Bar, Barney, please get me, please get me the vin, the vin, the vin, vin, vinegar!' that would be an anthem."

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION SPONSORS TALK

Will Broadcast Messages Dealing With Tax Matters Of State Setup

Friday night, January 7, California's State Board of Equalization inaugurated a series of radio broadcasts on "Facts About Tax." The series went on the air over Station KPO, San Francisco, between 9:45 and 10 p. m., and will be released each week through National Broadcasting Company affiliates in Los Angeles and San Diego.

Dixwell L. Pierce, State Board of Equalization secretary, nationally known revenue and taxation authority and member of the law faculty of the University of California at Berkeley, inaugurated the series Friday on behalf of the state board. He pictured in his talk the state's revenue and taxation setup, and the part the State Board of Equalization plays in its administration.

The following Friday at the same hour and over the same station, Edward F. Treadwell, widely known San Francisco attorney and property tax authority, will discuss "California Property Taxes." January 21, Vincent D. Kennedy, representing the California Retail Merchants Association, will discuss "The Sales Tax and California Retailers."

January 28 the series will close with a talk by Roy W. Cloud, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association, on "The Sales Tax and the California School System."

Serious Business, This Education

He spends the summer months doing spade work in the cemetery and digs six graves a week when business is brisk.

Jerry formerly tried his hand at bell hopping and office work, but he thinks that grave digging "at $5 per day is not to be sneezed at."

COURT ORDER IN PURCHASING AGENT BATTLE

Judge A. R. Cotton, who is ill but expected back on the bench by that time to preside.

Kelly's mandamus action, filed by Attorneys John E. Manders and Joseph J. Bullock shortly after 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, asserted that Kelly, on January 7, 1935, was appointed for a term of four years.

It states that on January 3, 1938, he made demand on the controller's office for his salary for the 31 days of December, amounting to $291.66, and was refused.

The petition asserts that by reason of the refusal, Kelly has "suffered unnecessary delay in receiving his salary, and has been and will be deprived of his rights to payment as providded by law."

The court's decision in the mandamus action is expected to settle the main issue of the controversy—whether Kelly is entitled to his salary for the unexpired period of his appointive term, and to the right of the supervisors to deprive him of it.

Acting Controller Filbert offered him thirty days salary for December, Monday, after the district attorney ruled that Rolison did not qualify until his bond was recorded December 30. The consolidation ordinance actually went into effect December 24. Claiming he was still the purchasing agent on December 31 and still is, Kelly demanded a full month's pay.

An eccentric Londoner, Edwin Thomas Howes, stinted himself on food and lived a miser's life, but until his death not long ago he lit his pipe every morning with a one pound ($5) bank note.

STELLA DALLAS AT LOCAL THEATER

STELLA DALLAS SHOWS AT DALY CITY THEATER

When Samuel Goldwyn assembled the cast for the production of Stella Dallas, which is the attraction at the Daly City Theater for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of next week, his choice for the title role was only made after viewing numerous candidates for the coveted part.

Forty-eight different screen tests were made, which included actresses famous in Hollywood and New York, as well as unknowns from stock companies throughout the country.

Not only does the entire story revolve around and depend on the characterization of Stella Dallas, but the role is one of the most difficult to play, showing the woman's moral fiber and character gradually breaking down as the plot unfolds.

The screen tests were made in an unusual manner, being equivalent to shorts in length. Goldwyn instructed Director King Vidor to test the various candidates in four different phases of the screen play. Then the film was edited into what corresponded to a regular short subject, and Mr. Goldwyn and his executive staff spent five hours in the projection room reviewing each different short.

Miss Stanwyck's interpretation won her the role, and those who have seen her portrayal of the poignant and tensely dramatic theme agree that she reaches supreme heights of histrionic expression.

Special Interest In Sunday Service

Of especial interest to the members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church is the announcement that Rev. Ronald F. Colloty, O. F. M., will conduct the 10:30 mass next Sunday morning. Father Adain, now a professor at St. Anthony's Seminary at Santa Barbara, will be deacon for his brother.

Father Adain conducted mass in the same church a year ago, on New Year Day in 1937. Ronald Colloty was ordained to the priesthood in the Old Mission at Santa Barbara December 27, 1937, by Rev. J. J. Cantivell, D. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Colloty of Holy Cross, the proud parents of these young men, have two younger sons studying for the priesthood. They are Father Coleman, O. F. M., at Mission San Luis Rey in San Luis Rey in southern California, and Harry Colloty, who is with Father Adain in the St. Anthony Seminary at Santa Barbara.

The four young men have been visiting with their parents for the past week. They left, Thursday of this week, to continue their duties. It will be three years before they can again enjoy such a family reunion.
